

ACTION X EVENT

ACTION x EVENT

action / æk. n/ is a noun meaning the process of doing something.

event / vent/ is a noun meaning something that happens, usually special or important.

HOUSE ON FIRE

A house on fire is always a terrifying event. Fires usually happen because of somebody's irresponsible actions or maybe somebody did it on purpose. A fire can erupt for many reasons. Perhaps a person left the gas on or didn't put out a candle.

VOCABULARY BUILDING

terrifying . d sivrý

leave on . nechaj puzť ný

irresponsible . nezodpov dný

put out . uhasiť

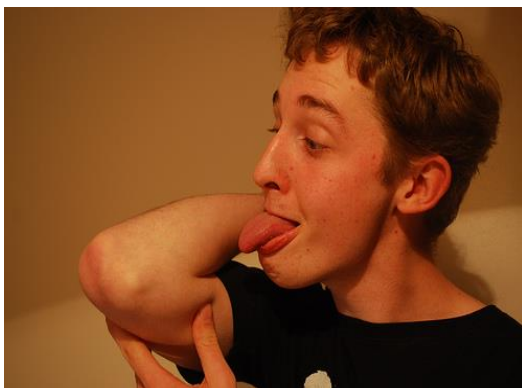

on purpose . schválň

candle - sví ka

QUIZ: TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Fill in the correct use of action and event:

1. I have too many _____ on my Facebook calendar.
2. I like movies with a lot of _____.
3. Licking your elbow is a very difficult _____.
4. We expected over 800 people to attend the _____.
5. The Stanley Cup final is always an incredible _____ because there is so much _____ on the ice.

KEY: 1. events 2. action 3. action 4. event 5. event, action