RECIPE x PRESCRIPTION x RECEIPT

A recipe /'resəpi/ refers to the set of instructions that tells you how to cook something and the ingredients you need for it.

A prescription /prɪ'skrɪpʃn/ is an official piece of paper on which a doctor writes the type of medicine you should get.

A receipt /rɪ'si:t/ is a piece of paper that shows what you bought at a shop.

GOING TO THE CHEMIST'S

In Britain, you may stumble across this logo on almost every corner. When you enter, you'll find yourself in one of the biggest chemist chains in the world. It's the kind of shop which merges a pharmacy and a drugstore. So besides getting your usual beauty products, you can collect your drugs on prescription (maybe you'll have to pay a prescription charge). Alternatively, you can buy some other drugs over-the-counter.

VOCABULARY BUILDING

stumble across - narazit, náhodou objevit

merge - spojit, sloučit

drugstore - drogerie

on prescription - na předpis

prescription charge - doplatek na recept

over-the-counter drugs - léky na bez předpisu
