

ANGLICKÉ OKÉNKO 2

ALL and EVERY

Don't say: Every children need love.

Say: Every child needs love.

Don't say: All light was out.

Say: All the lights were out.

Every is used with a singular noun. To give the same meaning, all is used with a plural noun. Only all and not every can be used with uncountable nouns.

*Note: the difference between all day/week...and every day/week...

She was here all day. (= from morning to night)

She was here every day. (Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday...)

KISS PRINCIPLE

"Keep It Simple, Stupid." - term which simply indicates that the simplest solution or path should be taken in a situation. This principle can be applied to any scenario, including many business activities, such as planning, management, and development.

While the "stupid" line may seem a little harsh, it adds humor to the saying, and probably is responsible for the saying's notoriety.

K.I.S.S. can also stand for "keep it short and simple", which implies that the simplest explanation is usually the best one.
