

SMALL and LITTLE

Small simply refers to size. It is the opposite of big or large.

Could I have a small brandy, please?

Little usually expresses some kind of emotion.

What's that nasty little boy doing in our garden?

!In some expressions little is used in the same way as small or short.

little finger – malíček

the little hand of a clock – malá hodinová ručička

a little while – malá chvilka

BUSINESS

Our whole family is in business. We do a lot of business in Italy but I often go on business trips abroad as well. Of course, I always travel business class. Sometimes there are interesting people to whom I give my business cards. They say my name, position and also the business hours. Our family business is run by our father who is the best businessman in our branch. And what do we actually do? Well, that's none of your business.

VOCABULARY BUILDING

be in business - věnovat se podnikání

do business - obchodovat, podnikat

go on business trips - jet na služební cestu

travel business class - cestovat business třídou

business cards - vizitky

business hours - úřední hodiny

run a business - vést podnik

businessman, businesswoman - obchodník, podnikatel/
obchodnice, podnikatelka

That's none of your business. - Do toho ti nic není.

QUIZ: TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Put either little or small:

1. They've bought a pretty _____ house in the country.
2. You're too _____ to be a policeman.
3. I usually have a _____ beer with lunch.
4. Poor _____ thing – come here, I will look at your knee.

KEY: 1. little, 2. small, 3. small, 4. little