

IN and INTO

Don't say: Lucie came in my office and sat down.

Say: Lucie came into my office and sat down.

! In denotes position inside something, while into denotes motion or direction towards the inside of something.

USEFUL PHRASES FOR GIVING DIRECTIONS

HOW TO ASK? Can you tell me where the library is? Can you tell me how to get to the airport? Which way is the hotel, please?

PUBLIC TRANSPORT: Take the Green Line to Central Station.

Transfer to the Red Line. Get off at Market Station. Go out exit number 4.

FOOT OR CAR: Go down Main Street to Broadway. Turn left and it's on your right.

CAR: Take the coastal highway. Take the Westminster turn off. Go over/Take the Alex Fraser Bridge. Go through (Take) the Massey Tunnel.

OTHER PHRASES: You can't miss it. I'm lost. Right in front of you. It's on the second floor.

VOCABULARY BUILDING

Which way – kudy (se dostanu), kde (je)

Transfer to – přestoupit na (červenou trasu)

Get off – vystoupit (na stanici)

Go out – jít ven (použít východ č.4)

Turn off/exit – sjezdte (z dálnice)

Go over/Take – přejet (most)

Go through – projet (tunel)

QUIZ:

Use in or into in these sentences.

1. Helen swims _____ the river every summer.
2. Tom jumped _____ the pool.
3. They walked _____ the meeting room.
4. She poured water _____ his glass.
5. The river flows _____ the sea.
6. The dogs are playing _____ the garden.

KEY: 1. in, 2. into, 3. into, 4. into, 5. into, 6. in,