

INTERESTING x INTERESTED

INTERESTING x INTERESTED

Don't say: "I am interesting in films."

Say: "I am interested in films."

We use interested in when we talk about people and their feelings. We use interesting when we talk about things and situations.

DISCUSSION ON MOVIES C – Clare, H - Henry

C: Hi Henry, would you like to go to see a movie tonight?

H: Hi Clare, yes, it sounds like a good idea. What's on?

C: Well, there aren't any good films on TV. We can borrow some from the library. It depends on what you are interested in and on your mood.

H: I prefer Sci-Fi which is set in space. And of course with subtitles in case I don't catch all the words.

C: Yes, I also like subtitles because dubbed films sound strange to me. As for me, I enjoy when directors adapt books into movies. My favourite genres are detective stories and dramas which reflect society. What I really love are plots with interesting conflicts.

H: I see. Well, I don't mind detective stories. Let's go to library and find a blockbuster.

C: Great idea! I am up for it.

VOCABULARY

What's on? – Co dávají?

mood – nálada

set in – odehrává se

space – vesmír

subtitles – titulky

reflect – odrážet

dubbed – dabovaný

to be up for sth – být pro něco

As for me – co se týká mě

adapt into - zpracovat do

plot – děj, dějová linie

blockbuster – trhák, bomba

QUIZ:

Complete the following sentences with interesting or interested in.

1. I find documentary films about history the most_____.
2. She was _____fairy tales when she was a little child.
3. Are you _____blockbusters?
4. They made the plot very complicated and _____.

Key: 1. interesting 2. interested in 3. interested in 4. interesting