

DON'T HAVE TO vs MUSTN'T

MEAT x MEAL

Don't say: "I really like eating meal with potatoes. "

Say: "I really like eating meat with potatoes. "

Meat = a kind of food (e.g. pork, beef, chicken)

Meal = the food that you serve or eat at one time

AT THE RESTAURANT W: waiter C: customer

W: Are you ready to order, sir?

C: Yes. I'll have the beef stew for starters and my wife would like the leek soup.

W: One beef stew and one leek soup. What would you like for the main course?

C: I'll have the fried trout with mashed potatoes and my wife would like Mexican casserole with sweet corn and meat.

W: I'm afraid we are out of trout. Would you like to order another meal?

C: Oh dear. What else do you recommend?

W: The salmon with peas and carrots is very good.

C: OK, I'll have that. May we have a bottle of Sauvignon 2000 please?

W: Certainly. Excellent choice!

VOCABULARY

stew – dušené maso se zeleninou

casserole – jídlo připravené v jednom hrnci

leek – pór

to be out of – už nemít (suroviny)

main course – hlavní chod jídla

peas – hrášek

starter - předkrm

mashed potatoes – bramborová kaše

salmon – losos

trout – pstruh

QUIZ:

Complete the following sentences with meat or meal.

1. I would like to have a lovely ____ with my family on Sunday evening.
2. Does she eat ____ or is she a vegetarian?
3. Can you please order this ____ for me?
4. Some people prefer eating raw ____ nowadays.
5. I've bought this tender ____ at the butcher's today.

Key: 1. meal 2. meat 3. meal 4. meat 5. meat

