

WHO X WHICH

WHO x WHICH

who /hu/ is a pronoun used when referring to a person or people.

which /w t/ is a pronoun & determiner used when referring to something previously mentioned.

THE ROBBERY

This is the shop which got robbed last night. Witnesses said that the man who robbed the shop carried a machete, and he wore a mask which made him look like a clown. The shopkeeper who was working at the time said that he was carrying a bag which was green, and escaped with a friend who was waiting for him in a car which was parked outside the shop.

VOCABULARY BUILDING

to rob . okrást

machete . ma eta

witness . sv dek

shopkeeper . prodava

to carry . nést

to escape . uniknout

QUIZ: TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Fill in the correct use of who and which:

1. People _____ live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones.
2. A Tale of Two Cities, _____ was a novel written by Charles Dickens in the 1800s, is still very popular today.
3. The answers, _____ you can find at the back of the book, are sometimes wrong.
4. They wanted to hire someone _____ was more like their previous employee.
5. The company _____ started it all is now bankrupt.

KEY: 1. who 2. which 3. which 4. who 5. which