

WRONG X BAD

WRONG x BAD

wrong /r ɪ/ is an adjective used to describe something that isn't correct / right.

bad /bæd/ is an adjective used to describe something that isn't nice / good.

wrong = špatný, nesprávný

bad = špatný, zlý

THE DREAMER

Jakub, a high school student made one bad decision which almost led to him failing the year. Jakub loved English, especially literature, and during the final weeks of school, before exams, he began to focus too much on his dream of a career as a poet. He didn't study enough for the other subjects and received very bad grades because many of his answers were wrong, especially in math! Luckily the final grades were good enough for him to pass, and he became a world-famous poet.

VOCABULARY BUILDING

high school . střední škola

poet . básník

(to) lead to . vést (k němu)

subject . předmět

(to) focus . soustředit se

grades . známky (ve škole)

QUIZ: TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Fill in the correct use of wrong and bad:

1. It was a _____ idea to drive over the speed limit.
2. Most of his answers on the test were _____.
3. _____ people usually go to prison.
4. The superlative of _____ is ~~the worst~~.
5. It isn't _____ to do something _____. But it is _____ to do something _____.

KEY: 1. bad 2. wrong 3. bad 4. bad 5. bad, wrong, wrong, bad